

Huntsville Youth Orchestra Music Programs for Students

The Huntsville Youth Orchestra offers six levels of musical opportunities with strings classes ranging from beginner to very advanced, and ensembles for wind and percussion students with as little as a year of playing experience to very advanced full orchestra.

The ensembles of the HYO include:

Novice Strings, a group class for beginners, age 7-10, who wish to learn the violin, viola, cello, or bass.

Intermezzo Orchestra, for string players with 1-2 years of experience

Concert Orchestra, for intermediate level string players with at least 2-3 years of experience.

Philharmonia, for intermediate level string players and wind and percussion players with at least 1-2 years of playing experience.

Sinfonia, for advanced string players, and wind and percussion players with at least 2-3 years of playing experience.

Huntsville Youth Symphony, for advanced string, wind, and percussion players.

Ensemble	Conductor	Time	Room	Location
Novice Strings	Bethany Wing	Tuesdays, 5:00-6:00	141	First Baptist Church
Novice Strings	Bethany Wing	varies	varies	area schools
Intermezzo	Kelli Batraw	Tuesdays, 5:00-6:00	140	First Baptist Church
Concert	Kelli Batraw	Tuesdays, 6:15-7:15	140	First Baptist Church
Philharmonia	Jacob Frank	Tuesdays, 5:00-6:25	330	First Baptist Church
Sinfonia	David Ragsdale	Mondays, 5:30-7:00	Band Room	UAHuntsville
Huntsville Youth Symphony	Joseph Lee	Mondays, 7:15-9:15	Band Room	UAHuntsville

NOTE: Students must audition for acceptance to Philharmonia, Sinfonia, and the Huntsville Youth Symphony. Audition information is on the website. Students perform in a variety of concerts throughout the year.

More information available at www.huntsvilleyouthorchestra.org

256-880-0622

Hyo.exdir@gmail.com

